

John Leonard Radochio

December 14, 1938 - October 12, 2022

John Leonard Radochio, 83, passed away on Wednesday, October 12th, 2022. He was a lifelong Catholic and a member of St. Francis Church of Assisi.

John was born to John and Margaret Radochio on December 14th, 1938, in Welch, West Virginia. He graduated from Welch High School in 1956 where he excelled in football. He then obtained his Masters Degree in Rehabilitation Counseling from West Virginia University in 1962. He went on to work at the West Virginia Rehabilitation Center for 42 years, where he met his wife, Linda. They married on November 27th, 1965, moving to St. Albans where they shared a life and raised their two sons.

John, above all other passions, shared a love for family as he was a devoted husband, brother, father, and grandfather. He was cherished by all those around him for his kindness, generosity, and, of course, his incredible ability to tell stories. He was the calm in any storm, and he spread that peace to all those around him.

He precedes his beloved wife, Linda Radochio, with whom he shared 55 years of marriage. He also precedes his sister, Karol Radochio, and his loving parents, John and Margaret Radochio. He now joins them in Heaven.

He survives his two sons, David Radochio and John Radochio, his daughter-in-law, Sheila Radochio, and three grandchildren, Angela Radochio, William Raodchio, and Teri Joseph.

Family and friends are invited to attend visitation for John at 12p.m. Monday, October 17, 2022 at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in Saint Albans, followed by a Mass of Catholic Burial at 1p.m.

Burial will follow in Cunningham Memorial Park, St. Albans.

“None will ever know of how many countless West Virginians with disabilities had their lives impacted by John Radochio at the WV Rehabilitation Center.

This kind and gentle professional was a stalwart at WVRC who always went the extra mile with his clients, and never gave-up; even when others did.

The world needs more people like John and his beloved wife Linda. I count it a pleasure to have been their colleague and friend.

“John and Linda were some of the finest people that I have ever known. I had always thought highly of them both when I worked at the Rehab Center.

Your family is in my prayers.
