“ I will forever miss you, Puss. You were everything to me. I promise I'll keep pushing forward....legs or no legs. I can't believe this will be the last time I'll see your beautiful face. I'll never take off the bracelet you brought me from the beach and I'll cherish each piece of you left behind at my house. You haunt every charge, mirror and corner. I'll try and make it to see NF for you in SEPT. Tell Jayson hi from me. Fly high my love. Fly high.

“ Josh was the greatest friend I will have ever known. He showed me who I was beyond physical limitations. Josh never let me give up on myself. He could light up any room, his laughter could echo for miles. Despite his blue hair he loved anything red, tiny furniture, teraium building and board games. Josh was very much an empath. He held a strong face and attitude but underneath he showed me his darkness. He loved his Nan which I'd not gotten to meet yet beyond words. And, of course Penelope. Aka Doo. Josh had many "friends" but very few he loved like family. He never used the word love loosely when he meant it. I could go on and on but I will stop here sending good vibes and love to his family and friends. I love you babe. My amazing, shining star. 🤝 ❤️Kat

“ I only knew josh for a short time but he has impacted my life in so many ways. Josh was my first friend I made moving here to WV and I am so thankful to have met and known him. He could light up the room and have you laughing and smiling all day long. I feel a emptiness now that he is gone and I always will. I love you Josh and I will carry your memory with me everyday forward. I am so sorry for the pain his family is going through. But I hope everyone of you know how amazing and kind Josh was and how loved he was.
