“Kimmy was my best friend for so many years. We became fast friends when we were sophomores in high school. She always had me laughing. She had the best sense of humor. I can still remember her laughter. She could light up a room with her smile. She had such a pure heart and would give anyone the shirt off of her back. We had lost touch some time ago. I'd give anything to have changed that. She meant the world to me. I hope she knew that. I didn't know of her passing until recently. She was on my mind and a simple Google search for her led to her obituary, which shattered my heart into a million pieces. Can anyone tell me what happened to her? Many questions with zero answers. My Kimmy. I hope you're in heaven having the best of times. I guess I better try to be on my best behavior (ugh) so I can be lucky enough to join you. I love you so damn much and the world is super boring here without you in it.

“Sweet Kimmy, it's so unfair that your young life was taken away from you too soon. I'm so thankful to God that I had the chance to tell you I love you. You will be missed. Rest in peace Kimmy. I pray for peace, love and comfort for your parents and children. Love, Auntie Elaine

“ Kim was a good person who would do anything for you if she knew you needed help. Nothing I can say or do will ease the pain of losing someone you truly care about. Just know God has gained a truly beautiful person inside and out making the most glorious angel in heaven. I know life goes on as always but I also know that we have another guardian angel looking over us now. God Bless
