“ I first met Bo in 2008, when I attended my first Rod Run and Doo Wop. He was Bill Muck at the time. Bill and Bo became part of my extended WV family as I came down every year for the Doo Wop.

Bo, Bill, and Jim Winter came to Michigan to see me and attend the Woodward Dream Cruise. They were amazed at the size of the crowd and the sheer number of cars. I will miss Bo and what his friendship meant to me.

“ Bo always came into Village Sampler and said, “Hello ladies, and you too, Marcia!” I always teased him about all his names! The best thing was that he loved and adored Pat! Rest in peace, Bo. Love you, Pat!

“ My wife Cassie and I were neighbors of Pat and Bo for many years on Strawberry Rd. Bo was always helping anyone who was in need and was devoted to Katie and Jenny. He was always doing activities with Pat and adored her. A true family man and pillar of the community.

Rest high on that mountain Bo and God Bless your family. Our love to the family.
