“ SIS, as we grew older and families expanded we were less in touch as is life. Know this you took a large part of my heart with you. My memories of our vacations, picnicking and "singing" will stay forever. My sweet sister I love you and pray your pain has passed. Your little brother Darrell. ♥♥♥♥♥♥♥♥♥♥

“ One day when Mom was sick, I went to stay with her and Missy to help, and many time i would walk to help them never did I regret one minute, would do it all over a million times.. I would feed her, then she had gotten a little bit better, I remember we where in her room, she Missy, Angie feed me by a spoon that why im better 😭 But after she got better she was eating everything in the house 🤞 What I would give to do it again! No I wasnt with her most of the time, but would go when i could!! So hold your Mom close !! A mother and daughters bond is so precious!!
