“ It is with sadness of learning of Louie’s passing. I have known Louie since 2013 when he came to Maryland to move me back to WV so I could take care of my brother Austin “Steve”, who was a good friend of him and Tammy. He loved them both. He was a good man who loved his family and was so proud of his grandson. May God give Marshall, Corbin and and all the family peace and comfort. God bless. Nancy Stephens

“ I many memories I don't know which on to pick so I'll just pick one by random. We were squirrel hunting when I was little and a huge red fox came running up a hill and he yelled "fox squirrel" and I laid back on the ground while he emptied his gun. After the smoke cleared in the fox got away he looked at me and said "that was very smart of you". Lol. I'll never forget that day
