“ Mom, you were such a treasure to your family. You birthed 5 children before the age of 25 and you never complained. You were always our biggest cheerleader no matter the game. Unconditional Love was your style and everyone you met felt that love in a profound way. You planted seeds of Jesus’s love that continue to grow. Enjoy that cabin with a rocking chair on the porch. Thank you for teaching me that God’s grace is sufficient. I miss you already but my heart can’t be sad, for you are with the father in paradise.
