

Marc Christopher "Marcus" Harpold

April 1, 1966 - July 5, 2024

Marc Christopher "Marcus" Harpold, 58, of South Charleston, WV went to be with the Lord on Friday, July 5, 2024, at WVU Medicine, Ruby Memorial Hospital, Morgantown.

He was born in Charleston to Sarah Jane Harpold and the late William Ronald Harpold. He was preceded in death by his brother, Stephen Harpold by one year and 3 days.

Marc was an employee for the Salvation Army with 20 years of service where he developed special friendships. He also worked and lived in St. Augustine, FL and was a former instructor at Nautilus in Charleston. He attended St. John's Episcopal Church in Charleston when he was younger. He was a graduate of Dunbar High School and Marshall University.

Leaving behind to cherish his memories are his mother, Sarah "Sue" Harpold; brothers, Micheal Harpold (Nancy) and Joel M. Harpold (Deborah); aunt, Lee Tsapatsaris. He was "Uncle Marc" to his many nieces and nephews.

A celebration of life will be held at 1:00 p.m. Saturday, July 13, 2024, at the First Baptist Church, St. Albans with his brother, Pastor Joel M. Harpold officiating.

The family will receive friends one hour prior to the memorial service at the church.

In lieu of flowers the family suggests donations to the Salvation Army, In Memory of Marc C. Harpold, 301 Tennessee Ave., Charleston, WV 25302 or Manna Meal, In Memory of Marc C. Harpold, 1105 Quarrier Street, Charleston, WV 25301.

You may visit Marc's tribute page at BartlettNichols.com to share memories or condolences with the family.

Bartlett-Nichols Funeral Home, family owned and located at 409 Sixth Avenue, St. Albans is honored to serve the Harpold family.

“ I had the honor of working with Mark for 4 1/2 years He will be missed by many. I wish I could have come to say good bye, unfortunately I have to work. He always had a smile on his face. We use to laugh and crack jokes every trip he made to the Spencer Store. It's gonna be different not seeing him. May he rest in peace and I pray for comfort for all his family and friends.
