

Margaret A. Hill

February 23, 1934 - December 23, 2024

Margaret Ann Hill, 90, of Nitro passed peacefully into the arms of her beloved Lord and Savior on Monday, December 23, 2024.

Margaret was a devoted Christian and a prayer warrior for many. During her final days on Earth, Margaret continued to pray for those around her and shared the love and peace that is obtained through a relationship with Jesus Christ. She knew where she was going and anxiously waited to hear the words, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

Margaret was welcomed by her parents, William and Jarlene Bailes and husband, Paul R. Hill, Sr. who preceded her in death.

Left to carry on her legacy are son Paul R. Hill, Jr. and wife Connie, daughter, Teresa and husband, Rick Lamb. 4 Grandchildren Josh Lamb, Shaun and Danielle Lamb, Jess and Eric Westfall, and Tony and Rachel Hill. 10 great-grandchildren: Landon, Grayson, Ethan, Talan, Adalyn, Brayden, Nick, Emi, Hendrix, and Isla. She is also survived by a host of other family and friends that she loved dearly.

When asked the secret to living nearly 91 years, Margaret responded, "Love Jesus, Love your family, and Love yourself." She most definitely lived and loved with every last breath.

“ Margaret was my favorite cousin. She was a great prayer warrior for God and you could call her at any time and know she was there to pray and listen to any concerns you had. She was also our family historian and told me of ancestors I would have never known if not for her. Alex Haley said, when an older person dies it is the same as a library has burned down. My library is no more but I have the promise that we will meet again in heaven.

Your favorite cousin, Patty Adkinson

“ Paul and Teresa, Your mom always seemed to be smiling. I remember being with her and your dad as we grew up. My heart breaks for you, but I know the faith you share will, in time, bring peace to your hearts. Remember her love and hold those memories close.
