“ I am so sad to hear of Sissy's passing. I knew she and Frank from church basketball in the early 1970s. I can still see her sitting in the bleachers with toddlers while Frank coached us. In recent years, we reminisced about those days and she told me all about her grandchildren. She was so proud of them all.

“ Well, I didn't know her personally Sissy had such an infectious spirit of positivity. I went to Thomas Moore with her granddaughter Sydney. It was always such a joy to see her rooting on Sydney and the rest of the team to victory (and yelling at the refs) at the girls basketball games. She will be missed. My condolences to Sydney and the rest of the family.
