“Marjorie, is a unique person always given love of herself to others. I had my son Richard a memorial service at Highland Baptist Church, where she attended most of the time she came to his service and I hugged her and blessed her for coming and her words to me was Donna I didn't want to be anywhere else! I'm here for you. I'll always hold this in my heart. You're a special lady and such a light in heaven. Love you 🙏

“Margery was such a remarkable and giving person. As a child, I was always excited to visit her, she always had something interesting to look at, to play with, or an interesting story to tell.

She really didn't sweat the small stuff, I remember I was about 10 and my family was visiting her at St. Albans. My sister Kate and I convinced someone probably one of my older cousins (definitely not my Mom) to buy us some slime in a small plastic container with plastic worms. The slime ended up spilling onto the kitchen table cloth. I thought the tablecloth was ruined and cried. Margery said, "What do you think a table cloth is for? To protect the table." She took the tablecloth, scraped the slime into the trash and put it in the wash. The next morning the same green and flower tablecloth was on the table with no stain. Even today, whenever I use a table cloth I think of that story.

“ Margery was always such a kind and thoughtful family member. Her name always brought a smile and a sweet story from my mom, my aunts, and my brother. She had a wonderful curiosity about life and others who cared about her. Margery will be greatly missed.

“ I am so sorry to read this. Marg was my neighbor when I lived at Maple Terrace. She always had a smile and a kind word. She was a joy and I am thankful she was put in my path of life. To her family and friends, God bless you and keep you at this sad time. May the Sweet Peace of Jesus be with all who loved her.

“ I am so saddened by Margery's passing, my condolences to her family. We became acquainted through the pecan sale at Christ Church, she looked forward in earlier years of getting the pecans to do her baking and then in the latter years she got bags to give as gifts. Such an elegant person, I will miss talking with her.

“ Margery was always so welcoming and kind when my family visited, mostly for Zane's birthdays. She worked hard in some of her later years preparing food and was always there. She was a joy to be with and I think everyone who knew her loved her. I'm so glad she was able to be healthy and active till close to the end of her life. I feel blessed to have known her!

“ Margery was like a Mother to me. She often would indulge my obsession with the Royal family by sharing stories with me. She was so kind and loving. I mean what other person would make up a bag of candy on a moments notice so my grandson. Who was 3 could trick or treat! I will miss her as I loved her, very very much. Rest well Margery.
