“ Debbie, wanted to pass along our condolences as we heard of Melvin's passing. Met you guys through the motorcycle community and visited your home a couple times. What a great guy and during our visits he made us feel like he's known us all his life. Our prayer is that God will strengthen you and family during this difficult time as we all reflect on his memory.

“ Deb, I will never forget when you and Melvin came to visit here. When we went to see my dad, who had not seen Melvin in at least 40 years, my dad immediately recognized him and called him by name. Melvin was a big part of so many of our lives. Thinking of you and the family. My mom sends her love.
