“ My spiritual father, my youth pastor, friend; he comforted and counseled me in and through many of my life situations ... how do you share just one memory? There are SO many... First and foremost, he is the one I went to, at 16 years old, to ask about becoming a Christian.. what is being "saved" all about was my question..?? It was a Tuesady night, after choir practice.. he simplified the response and led me in prayer. The youth trips to Missouri and NC, assisting he and mom in children's church, attending his mother's funeral with mom and pop Gidley, watching Anne of Green Gables with them(my first time ever hearing of this movie and I loved it!), guiding me through some parental situations, his love of the Wizard of Oz and all the spiritual context he brought out (as well as Cinderella)... there are so many great memories. I LOVE YOU and will miss you Dad. I LOVE YOU MOM and am praying for the peace and strength only our Lord can give. 🙏❤️❤️❤️🙏
