“ I grew up from a very young age with Michelle. And throughout our lives, we would always pop back up randomly, and it was always when it was most needed. The last time I got to see her, was when we were in RPC and I had been there for about 2 weeks before she came. I had never seen this girl so relieved when she spotted me. I can hear her like it was yesterday-“man, am I glad to see you here!” And she stuck to me for the first couple of weeks, but after a while, when she let her guard down...I got to see her blossom in to a social butterfly who was loved by all the girls! I have seen Michelle in her innocence days, in her early addiction, in her harder days, and then the last memory I have of her is in recovery when she was the best version of herself. She was beautiful inside and out, she would give the shirt off her back for ANYONE that needed it, and most of all...her daughter was the love of her life! Michelle, You gave it your all and fought long and HARD! Your fights over and you are finally at peace. We will all miss you more than you will ever know! I know Darren now has someone to keep him in check. Rest easy my friend, I'll see you around. -Kerstin

“ I absolutely loved her so much. I got to Recovery Point and she was one of the first ones to make me feel a part of. She was always there to make me smile even when I didn't feel like it she had a way to bring out the best in people. She will forever live in my heart as one of my sisters. May you rest in Peace my beautiful friend.

“ Oh what a gift from God you were. I have loved you from the moment I knew you existed and that love still remains. You were so smart, funny, spunky, pretty, caring and generous. And a hard core Momma's girl to the bone. My peace lies in my belief that God saw a way to end your suffering and now you reside at His side, pain free. I love you, sweetie!
