“ So many memories... hard to share just one. Our birthdays were boy on August 12. We both loved red skittles. She thought everything my son did was so cute. I on the other hand, did not. 😊 I can hear her soft voice It was so calming. Monica fly high with the angels sweet lady. Love you always. Diane

“ I hear her sweet voice and see her infectious smile for she always seemed to me a very positive person. She and Rev. Gil made a difference in our lives as teens in a small WV town where things often stayed the same. The family brought interesting perspectives to our mountain community. Monica will be missed by many.
