

Nicholas "Nick" Chaber

December 5, 1951 - February 19, 2026

Nicholas "Nick" Chaber, 74, of Alum Creek, West Virginia, passed away peacefully early on February 19, 2026 surrounded by the love of his family.

He was preceded in death by his parents Abdo and Mary Chaber his brothers George Chaber and Habib Chaber (survived by his wife, Paula Chaber), and his nephew Christian Chaber (survived by his wife, Lisa Chaber). Surviving family members include his loving sister and caretaker, Rhoda Mitias (Spiro Mitias) of Alum Creek, WV, sister Adele Mityas (widow of Mousa Mityas) of Danbury, CT, and brothers Dimitri Chaber (Mary Chaber) of St. Albans, WV and Sami Chaber (Rola Chaber) of Hurricane, WV. He is also survived by countless cousins, nieces, and nephews and great nieces and nephews.

Nick dearly loved spending time with his many nieces and nephews, as well as his great nieces and great nephews. Being around his family filled him with happiness, and they adored him just as much. Nick especially enjoyed talking about the Super Bowl and would excitedly bring it up whenever football season rolled around. He also loved reminding everyone about trips to the barber shop – making sure the kids got their haircuts – always with a smile on his face.

Nick's life was simple but meaningful. He found joy in everyday moments, in family gatherings, and in conversation. His constant smile, gentle laughter, and loving presence will be deeply missed but forever remembered by all who knew him.

The funeral will be held on Saturday, February 21, 2026, at 11:00 a.m. at St. George Orthodox Cathedral Church, Charleston, with Rev. Father Alex Mackhoul officiating. Burial will be at Cunningham Memorial Park in St. Albans, WV immediately following the funeral.

Visitations for family and friends will be held from 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. at the church.

In lieu of flowers, we invite you to make a donation in Nick's memory to St. George Orthodox Cathedral, Charleston, WV.

“ I have nothing but fond memories of Nick from my years working for the Mitias family. He was the best company for me when he came for a visit at the store. I will keep his family in my thoughts and prayers!
