“ I met Patsy when I went to work for her and George at Capitol Coach. I came to know her beautiful mother and sister and spent many days working out of the office in her home. She took me with her to the beach for a week vacation and we had the best time hunting shells and trying out new places to eat. It developed into a friendship that I am thankful to of had. Everyone that knew her knew she lit up the room. We became poorer when she gained her wings but heaven lucked out. Rest in heaven Patsy you were one in a million.

“ I spent my childhood summers with Grandma Patsy and Grandpa Harry—days filled with poolside fun, beach trips, library books, art classes, and time in her beauty shop. She later ran senior bus tours, and I was lucky enough to tag along on many of those adventures.

She was generous, fun, and full of life. She took me shopping, filled my summers with joy, and treated me like her own. I'll always be grateful for the love and experiences she gave me.

I'll miss her warmth, her laughter, and her big heart. Rest easy, Grandma Patsy.

With love,
Sabrina (Sam)

“ We loved spending time with Patsy (and Mary Lou) during the time we lived at Ocean Isle Beach. Patsy was always planning something for us to do, even when she didn't feel like doing it. She kept us busy! She was a one of a kind and will be missed. She is walking those Heavenly beaches with NO more pain. We love you Patsy❤️❤️. Jan and Barb Grogan

“ To Mrs. Pats family, I'm so sorry for your loss. I wasn't around Mrs Pat but a few times, but I really come to think the world of her. She told me stores of her husband, about the stories of people she had met while owning her travel service. She was a very delightful person. Rest easy Mrs Patricia.
