“ Unfortunately, I never got to see my Uncle Paul as often as those local to him. He was always very kind and smiling, big and strong, and tender.

“ I knew Paul since grade school. Even though I haven't seen him in years I recognized his happy face. Sorry to hear of his passing. God bless you Brenda.

“ Paul was an instrumental part of my youth, teaching the many ins and outs of horseback riding and showing horses. I always hold on to his knowledge, his kindness and his positive attitude during those many days and evenings he took to help my sister and I get ahead in the horse showing world. Although he was somewhat older than were we, Paul was always considerate of us. He was definitely a man of compassion to 2 young kids, many many years ago. Please know, Brenda, that I am sending comforting thoughts as you celebrate your brother's life.
