“ My deepest sympathies are with you girls. We are all so saddened by the passing of Paul. He was definitely one of a kind. What a great guy. He was always ready and willing to help with anything and he was definitely in his element at the farm and even while taking ballroom dance lessons. I am so heartbroken and I feel so much for your girls. Paul was a wonderful man and was always so welcoming to everyone. The backstage dads just lost one of their best and we salute him as a father, haunter, dancer, veteran, backstage dad and as a man. All of our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I didn't know Paul personally but he was one of my best friends from schools ex husband. Even though I didn't know him personally I saw videos and I comments and posts of him and her. I felt I could tell and feel the warmth of his soul. And he and my BF were still friends. She still cares for him deeply and that says something about a man. The eyes are window to the soul and when I saw his pictures I saw a sweet, fun loving man who had a crazy sense of humor and a big heart to boot. I know this world will be even darker without his light shining here. Thank you for your service to the Country Sir.. Rest In Peace until we all actually meet in heaven one day. I am heartbroken for your families loss. I am praying for all of you.

“ Thank you to everyone who made an impact in my dad's life. He was such a silly, hard-working man with a heart of gold and was so passionate about everything he did. He loved all of his haunt family, his best friends Shawn Mosteller and Lee Jordan, and he's gone way too soon. Thank you again to everyone in his life.
