“ I love this woman and always will she stepped up and was my mom when her daughter thought me an inconvenience. I don't have a bad memory of her. She was a gem the likes of which will never be seen again

“ I remember Pam as such a wonderful worker in the church. One of my last memories of her was at a candy making session at the church. She could no longer stand and cook, but she sat at a table and cut circular pieces of cloth to use on the lids of the candy jars. I have a Christmas ornament on our tree that was a gift from her. It will always remind me of a dear lady. Cared for her and Paul, as well. Our sympathy to the entire family. Tom and Lucille McClure

“ My husband and I attended church with Pam many years ago, and Pam was one of the nicest, sweetest women we had ever met. So kind and always had a smile on her face. I can only imagine the smile she has now seeing the sights and sounds of heaven, and walking with her Savior and her loved ones. Our sincere condolences to her family. Pam & Greg Cochran
