“ Nancy and kids,

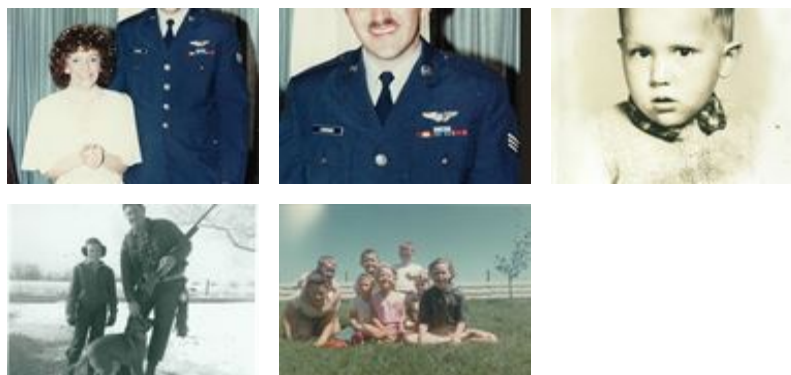

I'm thunderstruck and saddened to hear this news. Ralph was such a fabulous, warm-hearted man, and though he was a warrior and patriot, he was a teddy bear when it came to his Nancy and his family. I'm just heartbroken. Maily, Michael, Chloe and I send our prayers, thoughts, and love your way, and know that though it's been a while, you're always in our hearts.

Love, the Murrays

“ Ralph and I worked at Lowe's for a few years together in the paint department. I am very sorry for your loss. He was a very nice and caring man. He would always have such nice things to say about his wife and how much he loved her. He was truly a pleasure to be around and work with. He was definitely one of the good guys.
