

Richard "Rick" Powers

August 27, 1959 - August 3, 2023

Richard Powers, 64, of St. Albans passed away on Thursday, August 3, 2023 at Hospice at CAMC Memorial, Charleston.

He was born in Charleston to his father, Richard Powers; mother and step-father. Wilma Mae Thevenin Powers Fooce and Samuel Fooce; brothers, Luther McFarland "Mack" Gillispie and James L. "Bo" Gillispie.

Surviving are his companion, Drema Stevens; daughters, Stephanie Powers of Hurricane and Jennifer Powers of Nitro; brothers, William E. "Butch" Gillispie (Geraldine) and Melton "Tom" Gillispie (Elaine); seven grandchildren and many nieces, nephews and friends.

Private graveside service was held at Lower Hodges Cemetery, Hurricane.

You may visit Rick's tribute page at BartlettNichols.com to share memories or condolences with the family.

Bartlett-Nichols Funeral Home, family owned and located at 409 Sixth Avenue, St. Albans is honored to serve the Powers family.

Tribute Wall

“ To the one that had to leave me behind if for only a moment in time. For we were as one as we will be again. For apart I'm lost and miserable without you for only you knew more about me than I do. For only you knew the true inter self of me when no one else could. We will once again be as one soon for my time here isn't long as you knew. So go get that bike you talked about ready cause in heaven there is no time. For yes my sweet hotrod we will ride once again....for ever in my heart and soul your tootsy....Drema

Drema Stevens - August 20, 2023 at 05:45 PM

CM

I met Rick on the first day of first grade and we were buddies through out junior high and high school. I went in the Army and we lost touch. I had hoped to say hello but that will have to wait until I see you in heaven. Colonel Charles (Charlie) McCormick, USA retired

Colonel Charles McCormick - January 07 at 02:16 PM