“ We are so sorry for your loss! Bob was a special guy to us & our church. In Christ, it's not “good-bye” but rather, “see you in a little while”. No doubt, we will see Bob again some day & he will be well & standing tall.

Prayers for all Bob's family during this difficult season.

Sincerely, Joe & Kelley Moore

“ Bob was such a fun friend to have. Telling jokes, playing pranks. fishing or taking road trips his company was always treasured and will be greatly missed. For all the fun times and stories I will remember most the great friend that could be counted on no matter time, place or circumstance. A true picture of Bob's goodness was the tremendous care and support for so many years he provided his parents after a severe auto accident. Bird, you were most honorable and the honor was mine to call you a Brother.

“ I remember the 1st time that Bob belted out his famous Birdman everyone in the locker room there at Crawford field including Sam Le Rose , and his coaching staff wondered what had just gone on. It was the arrival of myth Bob Allison , the Birdman! I say more but that would go on forever. God bless this man and welcome him to the kingdom
