

Sally Davenport Chrest

July 29, 1937 - November 1, 2021

Sally Davenport Chrest, 84, passed away peacefully, Monday, November 1, 2021 in Baton Rouge, LA with family at her side.

Sally was born in Burnwell, WV to parents Frank Davenport, Sr and Kate Davenport and graduated East Bank High in 1955.

She is survived by her loving husband of 65 years, Joe Chrest, Sr, son Joe Chrest, Jr, grandchildren Nic and Samantha Chrest, sisters Dee Cottrell and Cindy Armstrong, brother Frank Davenport, Jr and many cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Sally worked for the Kroger Division Office for 13 years and retired from Elco Mechanical Contracting in Charleston.

Sally loved to travel, having driven through every state with husband, Joe and especially loved traveling often to Los Angeles to visit her son where she appeared with him in the ABC movie, CRIES FROM THE HEART with Patty Duke. She never missed a performance of her son or grandchildren and even traveled to Switzerland to see daughter in-law, Christine, dance. Sally will be missed by many.

“ I was born in Burnwell, West Virginia in 1938. I knew the Davenport family and attended elementary, middle and high school with Sally. I graduated from East Bank High School in 1956 along with Sally's husband Joe Chrest. I have fond memories of both Sally and Joe. I send my heartfelt condolences to Joe and the entire family.

“ Remembering my Aunt Sally fondly and the memories made at her house in WV, playing with her Boxer Bulldog and making homemade Shoney’s hot fudge cakes. Sally had the most wonderful laugh and loved her family so much.
