Sherry Ann Wroten Taylor, 72, of Hurricane, passed away unexpectedly March 9, 2022 at CAMC Teays Valley Hospital.

She was the only child to the late Lenford “Jiggs” and Ollie “Elsie” Woodard Wroten.

She was an Executive Director of ARC of the Three Rivers, which she was employed for 8 years working along with United Way and was considered a champion for all whom she served, clients and staff. Also, a director for Broadmore Assisted Living and Dunbar Americare Nursing Home.

Taylor, II; son, Eric Taylor (Betsy Ayers) of Barboursville; daughter, Destiny Taylor of Scott Depot; grandchildren, Taylor Miles (Ashley), Christopher Drew Taylor (Ashley), Olivia Taylor, Griffin Taylor (Maitlyn), Sophia Taylor, Maddie Ayers and Bryar Ayers; great grandbabies, Gage, Avery, Brody, Aria, Ivy and Hudson whom she adored.

Sherry cherished her whole family, coworkers, neighbors, her many friends and would do anything in the world for anyone, including the many that she will help by being an organ donor. She will be missed by all and never forgotten.

“ I was just one of Sherry's many friends. We communicated almost every day on FB, chats, texts, or a phone call. She never failed to say at the end of our call, "Love ya' girl." She had planned to come visit me at the beach in the spring. I know she loved the ocean, and I was looking forward for some "girl time" with her when she visited. That visit sadly never got to happen. I could not attend her funeral so on Sunday afternoon during the time of her funeral I took a bouquet of flowers to the beach. I prayed for her and her family and all those that loved her and placed the bouquet of flowers in the waves as my way of saying goodbye to her. There is a spot Sherry held in my heart that will never be filled. She was so amazing at everything she did. I'll always miss her. "Love ya' girl."

“ I worked closely with Sherry for many years as a part of the National Coalition of State Rehabilitation Councils (NCSRC). She was more than a valued colleague- she became a loved friend. Her contributions to the field of Vocational Rehabilitation in West Virginia and nationally are far-reaching. Her love and humor, coupled with her professional energy and competence, were extensive and cannot be replaced. We will miss you so much, Sherry.

“ Oh my dear friend! I can't bring myself to believe you're gone. I loved you as my sister and could always count on you for anything. You were there through the loss of my precious daughter and cried with me. You were instrumental in me being able to move on past my grief. You were always a trusted and true friend even when I was hard to care about you stayed by my side. I don't know how to get along without you. I love you so much. Please kiss my girl for me and tell her how much I love and miss her. I look forward to the day we will meet again. Until then hold the piece of my heart that is already in heaven. Love you forever

“ I have such good memories of being a young mom with Sherry in Sun Valley in the ‘70s and ‘80s. It was always a pleasure to run into her over the years as we lived our lives in this small community. Getting to visit with her in October with other Sun Valley veterans for a lunch reunion was so much fun! We got to catch up on each other’s lives. Sherry always had a smile, a hug and a kind word for everyone and I will miss her dearly❤️🙏

“ I went to high school with Sherry and I left St. Albans after graduation. While I lived and traveled all over the country, we stayed in touch with each other over the past 50+ years, especially when the use of social media exploded on the scene.

She was an exceptional human being, she never met anyone that she didn’t like, and even though I’m still stunned she’s gone, I’m smiling as I think about her and the many wonderful memories we had. I suspect there are literally thousands of people who are experiencing this same juxtaposition of emotions right now. RIP dear friend.

Sherry was the ever present person when out of town family needed help. She was the glue to keep the Taylor relatives together through Thanksgiving dinners. Sherry was the sister that Ann Dalton and I prized most. She can't be replaced and will not be forgotten.
