I am at a loss for words over Staci's passing. She actually called me just a few days before she left this earth. I will always wonder what she wanted to share with me as we never did connect with each other... I should have called her back right away. I will always regret that I didn't.

Stacie and I graduated from high school together and attended West Virginia State together as well. I remember her and I shopping together at fashion bug at the Saint Albans Mall together and we picked out out and purchased the same kind of blue jeans.

I can still see us together shopping and laughing that day. I will miss Staci forever. The world is not the same without her in it. I miss her. I am so sorry to her family for this terrible event. She was taken way too soon.

With love for you and for Staci I send my deepest sympathy.

“ Staci was one of the first people I met at a club scrap retreat, we were fast friends and found ourselves sharing a room in many a subsequent retreat. She was so kind and funny and loved her family so much

Heartfelt condolences to her family.

“ My condolences to your family and Staci's friends. I too know Staci through Club Scrap and the retreats we used to attend. She was kind, sweet and funny and we talked often through the years.

We also had a West Virginia connection - I have family in the area.

A beautiful soul was lost and heaven gained a sweet angel.

“ My condolences to the family. I also met Staci through Club Scrap. I can't imagine there is a nicer lady anywhere. While I am not blessed to say I knew her well, Staci had this amazing and wonderful knack for popping up in a message or social media post and saying the perfect thing, or sharing her amazing insight at exactly the right time over the years and sealing her special place in my heart. The world is a bit dimmer without her in it but Heaven has gained an amazing bright light.

“ Staci was the first person who spoke to me at a Club Scrap weekend retreat at the warehouse in February 2004. I had been a CS member for about 6 months at that point and we were friends immediately. Even though we only met at retreats each year we always picked up where we left off. It was like no time had passed. She was a warm and funny and vibrant person and so very caring of others. She will be much missed.

“ I met Staci at my first Club Scrap retreat in 2007. We were friends from the start and grew closer over the years and on the CS cruises. She and my husband also connected over West Virginia football. Staci was so sweet, smart, funny, and so responsible. I'm so sorry to hear of her passing. My sincerest condolences to her family and everyone who loved her. It's a huge loss for this world. I'll see her again in Heaven.

“ Staci was always a pleasure to be around and could always make me smile. She had a way of just making you feel comfortable around her. I enjoyed getting to know her even better at the past several class reunions. I still remember how cool it was that she won the car at the after graduation party the school sponsored! It was neat hearing her tell the story of how she found out she had won! Rest in peace in the arms of Jesus now, Staci. To her loved ones, I'm so sorry for your loss. I'm terribly sorry I can't make it to her funeral, as I live to far away

*Kind regards,
