“ Sue was a very special individual, and my father adored her. Dan and Sue would visit Dad , and provided many books of memories for him. Even after Dad relocated to South Carolina, Sue would call to catch up, and the two would talk about shared memories of Dan, and just to see how Dad was doing. Sue gave so freely of her talents, I remember how much everyone enjoyed Sundays when Sue shared her musical gifts , and how much my Mom enjoyed Sue. Sue and Dan had such a special love, you were happy just to be in their presence.

Sue “ was one of a kind “ as my dad said,
Thinking of Sue and all the family as they honor her passing.
Sending prayers for comfort and peace.

“ I was so saddened to read about Sue Anna's passing. She always had such a sweet spirit about her. The last time I saw her, she had a cart full of beautiful perennials ready to take home and plant. I'm from the Morgan side of her family and I know how much everyone loved her. She was special. Her grandfather Rembrandt and my grandfather John were brothers.

“ One of my best memories of Sue and Dan was when they showed up to my wedding during COVID and Dan was battling cancer. I was very prepared not to see them, especially because it was over a three hour drive for them. Even after Dan passed, I stay in touch with Sue and visited often.
