

Tawana Lynn Hundley

November 12, 1957 - January 27, 2021

Tawana Lynn Hundley, 63, passed away peacefully after her battle with cancer, surrounded by loved ones, on Wednesday, January 27, 2021, at her St. Albans home.

She was born on November 12, 1957 in Hamlin to the late Wayne Cochran and Dora Adkins. Tawana was 11th born out of 13 siblings.

She was a wife, mother, sister and friend. Tawana was always telling jokes and enjoyed life. One of her favorite events was going to the Adkins- Cooper-Cochran reunion in July every year, to be around the people she loved the most.

Although Tawana's adult life started out rocky that all changed when she met the love of her life, (husband) Curtis Alvin Hundley, when he fell in love with her beautiful smile and sense of humor. They married April 2, 1997 and were together 24 years. They both made a wonderful life together and enjoyed vacationing in Florida until Tawana was no longer able.

Tawana cherished her 7 children, Rebecca Gibson (Jack) of Marion OH, Heather Lawhun (Luke Beaver) of West Hamlin, Lonnie Chaney Jr. of Mansfield OH, Bonnie Messinger (Lonnie) of Mud River, Curtis Allen Hundley (Jenny) of Kenova, Casey Hundley of Indiana and Kashira Cooper of St. Albans; 18 grandchildren; 9 great grandchildren; and many nieces, nephews, and friends, who will miss her dearly.

Funeral service will be held at 2:00 pm Monday February 1, 2021 at Bartlett-Nichols Funeral Home, St. Albans, with Rev. Jimmy McKnight officiating. Friends may visit with the family from 1:00 - 2:00 pm Monday at the funeral Home. Entombment will be in Cunningham Memorial Park, St. Albans.
