“ My earliest childhood memories are living across the street 7th Ave in Benedict Circle from Frank and Ruth Meredith Teddy look the same in his picture as he always did. My family was the Clatworthys and at that time the children were Duane, Judy and myself, Mickie. Younger brother Joe was born after we moved to Park Street around 1950. I will always remember the Meredith family and may you rest in peace Teddy with your family now in heaven.
