“ Tj and I were always closer than with any other cousins maybe because we dealt with some of the same things through life then again maybe just because we were too much alike. I miss him like crazy and have thought of all the years watching him and Tiff and just can't come to terms with his passing. I know i told him every night for weeks now but for tonight i will say it again, I LOVE YOU BUB!

“ I'll never forget the joy of TJ' s birth. What a happy event for the entire family. I remember that cute little boy that always had this smile on his face, and standing beside his mom, or playing with the other kids. Grandma's little man. I missed out on some things in the middle, but I friended TJ on my FB page and he still had that smile, and big heart. I admired that he was truly courageous, and a fighter, not only for himself, but for his family that he loved so much.
RIP TJ..
