“ We lived beside of his mom and dad for years, Timmy was always came up to our house to just hang out but usually to hide from Jim, lol, he helped me do side jobs and I can honestly say there was no quit in him, he would always asked me what I thought about something he got in trouble for and I would usually have to make him mad and tell him something he didn't want to hear but he always came back the next day, my wife myself and family will forever be grateful for him being part of our lives, his smile, his kind heart and his goofy humor will be greatly missed

It was an honor to call Tim my friend. Most loyal man I've ever met. Sorry for the family's loss. Fly high my brother!
