“ I would just like to offer my condolences to the family. Cricket and I go way, way bacack to grade school. Always was such a nice person and I lost track of her when we went to Junior High.

“ My favorite memory of my Aunt Cricket was when I was six years old and we were having a family Easter Egg hunt at Aunt Boo's. I was following Cricket and she was opening eggs and throwing them behind her. I picked up an egg that she had discarded with a $20 bill inside. I cried and said the money was mine but she insisted it was hers and of course all the adults said it was her money. Glad now she got that $20 and I got the priceless memory.
